

Ahrend 1200 Edition

Designer: Ahrend Design

Less is more

This high quality Dutch-designed table was inspired using the design philosophy that less is more. Thanks to the perfect finish, this table will be the showpiece of every room. The new tabletop materials, range of shapes and additional electrification options make this table extremely versatile.

Characteristic design

- › Exceptional and truly distinctive design, with the direction of the wood grain highlighting the tabletop's form
- › Made in Holland using high-quality materials
- › Red Dot Design Award winner for a distinctive, excellent and original design

Suitable for diverse work environments

- › Can be used in meeting rooms and hospitality areas or when people need a temporary workplace
- › A distinctive range of work, conference and video-conferencing tables with electrification options incorporated into the tabletop

- › An eye for detail and perfection; all components have a high quality finish from every angle
- › Innovative optional extras such as the Ahrend PuK wireless smartphone charger

"The Ahrend 1200 Edition is a special version of the original and award-winning Ahrend 1200. Thanks to the fact that new materials and a new colour range have been used, we have honoured the beautiful design while also creating excitement."
